Story 1 - Peter preaching.

You can read this story in your Bible:

Acts 2: 36

Ask someone to help you find this verse.

The Lord Jesus had died, and had been raised to life again. Then a few weeks later, He had gone back to Heaven. Before He left, He promised to send the Holy Spirit to help His disciples to tell the people the wonderful news about the Lord Jesus.

Colour in each square which has a dot in it, to find the name of the Helper whom the Lord Jesus was to send.

4

Not long afterwards, the promise came true! The disciples were in a house in Jerusalem. Suddenly, the whole place was filled with a noise like a great, rushing wind. Then, something like flames of fire settled on each man's head. What a strange experience! The Holy Spirit had come!

Fill in the missing letters in the squares, using these clues.

1. They were in this building.
2. They saw what seemed like flames of this.
3. They heard the sound of this.

3

From this time onwards, the disciples of the Lord Jesus are often called by a new name.

Write down the first letter of each object to find it.

--	---

Because the Holy Spirit had come, the apostles were able to speak in languages which they had never known before. Many people were very surprised to hear so many strange sounds! Some people even said the apostles were drunk!

Put a ✓ after each ending which is right and an X after each one that is wrong.

When the Holy Spirit came,

the apostles all fainted.

the apostles all got drunk.

the apostles were so frightened that they spoke to no one.

the apostles were able to speak new languages.

Peter preached to the crowd which had gathered. He told them they had made a great mistake, in not believing in Jesus. They had rejected Him, but God had made Him both Lord and Christ. That's why we speak about Him as

“The Lord
Jesus Christ.”

Carefully colour these letters.

--	---

Peter told the crowds that they should be really sorry about what they had done. They should now believe in the Lord Jesus. If they did so, God would forgive them. He will also do that for each of us, when we turn from our sins, and receive Jesus as our Lord and Saviour.
