Study No. 1 Abraham - His Call

Read

Genesis 11: 27-32
12: 1-9

Suggested Further Reading

Joshua 24: 2 & 3      Hebrews 11: 8-10

Key Verses

Acts 7: 2- 4

Although Abraham lived thousands of years ago, his trust in God has been an example to Christians for many centuries. When we first read about him in the Bible, he is known as Abram.

Name the following members of Abram's family.

1. His father       2. His wife       3. His nephew    3

Abram and his family lived in Mesopotamia.

On the map mark:-

- The city they left.
- The town at which they arrived.
- The country to which they were travelling.

In those days, travel was not easy. Such a journey of several hundred miles would have been a major undertaking. It would have involved the movement of many people, servants, herdsmen and cattle. No one would set out on such a journey unless he was convinced it was the right thing to do!

Who appeared to Abram? (See Key Verses)

1

What did He say to him? (Genesis 12: 1)

1

Why did he go? (See Hebrews 11: 8)

1

It appears that Abram was not totally obedient. Instead of leaving his father's household, he took most of them with him, and instead of going straight to the land that God had told him, he stopped at Haran until his father died. God does not want us to be partially obedient. 'What He says, we must do! Where He sends, we must go!' Christians who do not obey God's Word (the Bible) will never receive the blessing God wants to give them.

Abram was also encouraged to obey God's commands by the promises God made to him. Notice how often God says to him, "I will . . . .".

Abram did not know the way to go (see Hebrews 11: 8), but he trusted God to guide him. We don't know all the details of his long journey, but we do know that Abram and his family eventually arrived in Canaan.

Make a list of all who went with Abram to Canaan.

Abram may have been disappointed when he got to Canaan. It was already inhabited, but God gave him a great promise which must have encouraged him. (See verse 7.)

How did Abram respond to this new promise from God?

This whole incident in Abram's life resulted from him meeting God and God calling him.

From the Key Verses, choose the one which shows this and write it out.

When God calls us, as He did Abram, we need to trust Him, follow Him and obey Him. In fact, we should hand over our lives to Him.
