Key Verse

Matthew 28: 19

Ask someone to help you find this verse.

One day the Christians in Antioch were gathered together. Among them were Barnabas and Saul. The Holy Spirit made it clear to the other leaders that Barnabas and Saul were to do a special work for God. So after praying about it, Barnabas, Saul and John Mark, a young nephew of Barnabas, set off in a boat for Cyprus.

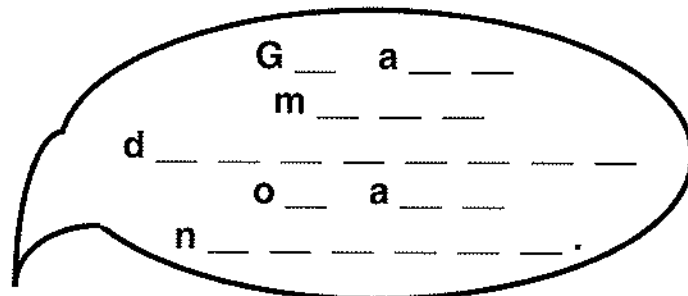

Name the three men who went on the boat journey and fill in where they were going.

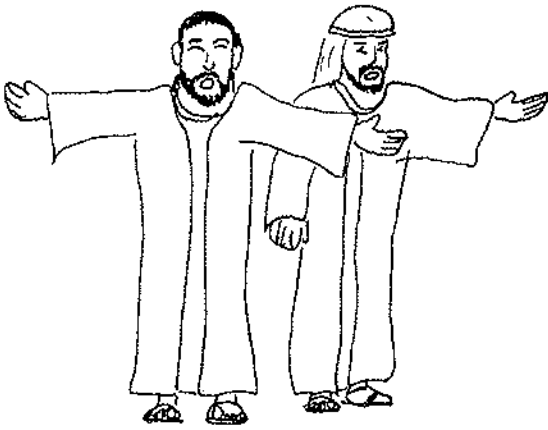

These men were obeying the Lord Jesus who had said, "Go and make disciples of all nations."

Jesus wanted the good news about Himself to reach every land. Now it was being taken to an island across the sea.

Fill in the missing letters in the speech bubble to remind you of the command the Lord Jesus had given.

When they arrived, they travelled around the island, preaching the good news.

At a place called Paphos they met a magician who worked for the governor of Cyprus. When the governor heard of Barnabas and Saul, he was very eager to meet them because he wanted to hear the Word of God. The governor listened carefully but Elymas, the magician, tried to stop him from believing.

Saul knew that the magician was doing the devil's work. Saul, who was full of the Holy Spirit's power, looked straight at the magician. With firmness he told him that he was doing evil and that the Lord would make him blind. No sooner had Saul spoken than Elymas did become blind! He groped around, trying to find someone to lead him.

What happened to Elymas? Cross out the WRONG answers.

He could not hear.

He could not walk.

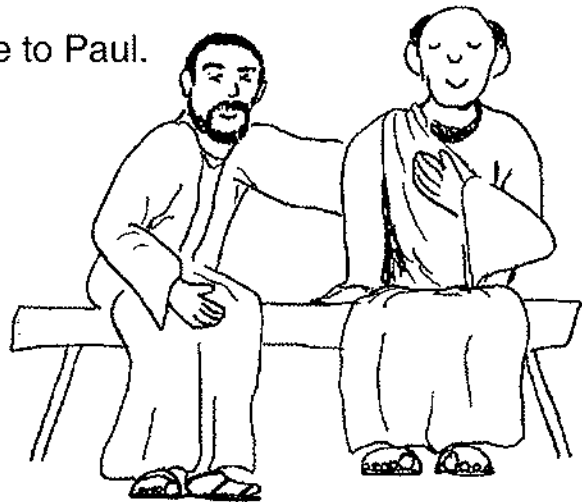

He could not see.

From that time, the Bible changes Saul's name to Paul.

Paul was able to do this miracle because God's power was at work within him. Now the governor had seen the greatness of God's power.

All that he had seen and heard helped him make the right choice - to believe in the Lord Jesus.
