*A true story
from the Bible:*

Acts 8: 26-40

*This story is about:
An African believing in the Lord Jesus.*

A desert is a very dry and hot place - not the kind of place where people live!

One day an angel told a preacher called Philip to go into a desert. Philip obeyed at once. When he reached the desert, he met an important man who was on his way home to Africa.

Philip heard the man reading from the Bible! He could not understand what he was reading, so Philip got up into the chariot and explained that it was about the Lord Jesus.

Soon the man knew that he needed to trust Jesus too. Without delay, he believed and had his sins forgiven. He then went home full of joy.
