

Story 2 - Jesus Dies and is Buried.

A true story
from the Bible:

Luke
23: 44-56

*This story is about:
the death and burial of the Lord Jesus.*

It was now the middle of the day. Suddenly the sun stopped shining and for three hours it became very dark.

During that time the Lord Jesus was punished by God for our sin. Jesus had already suffered a lot of pain, but we cannot understand how dreadful this punishment from God must have been.

Then Jesus spoke to His Father. He had finished everything that He needed to do for our sin to be forgiven, and He was ready to die.

After Jesus died, a kind man called Joseph took His body down from the cross, wrapped it in cloth and put it in a new tomb. Then he rolled a large stone across the door.

“Christ died
for our sins, according to the Scriptures,
and that He was buried...”
