How tragic! Listening to the gospel, he heard about his need to trust the Lord Jesus as his own Saviour, but he put the decision off! As far as we know, he never became a Christian. We, also, must beware of putting off this decision. What we do with the Lord Jesus is life's most important decision for each of us.

Paul had once again faithfully witnessed, yet found himself unjustly remaining a prisoner for two years. The matter was not considered again until Festus became the new governor.

Write IN YOUR OWN WORDS why the Jewish leaders wanted Paul to be returned to Jerusalem. (Acts 25: 1-3)
