

Please put your name here

Lesson No. 3 The Adventures of Paul - Paul in Prison

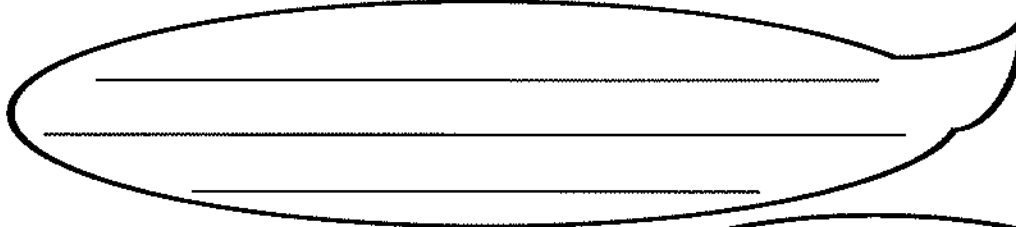

Acts 16: 16-34

Acts 16: 31

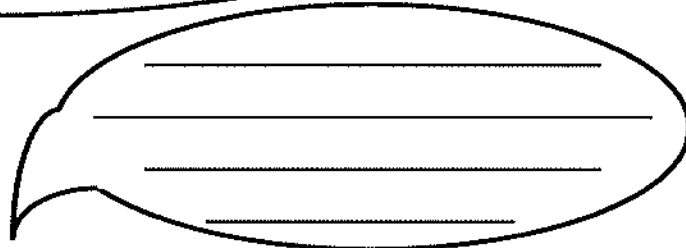

The Good News was spreading rapidly and had reached the important city of Philippi. Here Paul and Silas met a slave girl, who was used by her masters as a fortune teller. She kept shouting at them.

Write in the speech bubble what she shouted.

	1
--	---

After some days, what did Paul say to the evil spirit?

	1
--	---

When Paul said this, the evil spirit immediately left her. She could no longer tell fortunes.

Put these events into the correct order in which they happened by numbering the boxes 1, 2, 3 and 4.

- Paul and Silas were thrown into prison.
- The owners of the slave girl realized that they could not make money out of her any longer.
- The magistrates ordered them to be whipped.
- Paul and Silas were dragged into the market place and were accused of causing trouble.

	4
--	---

Fill in the missing letters (a, e, i, o or u) to find out what the jailer did with Paul and Silas.

H _ _ p _ t _ _ th _ m _ _ n _ _ th _ _ _ nn _ r
 c _ ll _ _ nd _ _ f _ st _ n _ d _ _ th _ _ r
 f _ _ t _ _ n _ _ th _ _ st _ cks.

	2
--	---

Draw the hands on the clock to show at what time Paul and Silas were praying.

	1
--	---

What else were they doing in prison? Check the correct answer.

They were asleep.

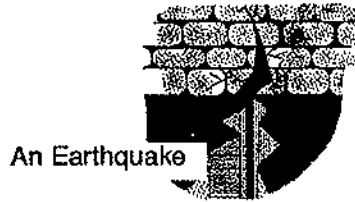

They were comforting each other.

They were groaning with pain.

They were singing hymns to God.

	1
--	---

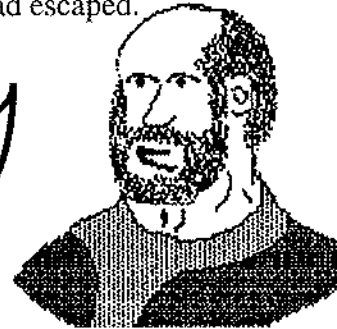

What happened next? Circle the correct answer.

	1
--	---

The jailer was about to kill himself because he thought the prisoners had escaped.

What did Paul shout to him? Unscramble the letters to find out.

	2
--	---

On hearing this, what did the jailer do? Answer from verse 29 IN YOUR OWN WORDS.

	2
--	---

Complete each of the letters to discover what the jailer asked.

What must I do to be saved?

	2
--	---

Write out the Key Verse to discover what Paul and Silas replied.

	2
--	---

That night the jailer and his family believed in the Lord Jesus and became Christians.

What did they do to show that their lives were changed?

	1
--	---

What a night for the jailer! He would never forget how he was saved on the night of the earthquake.

Are you saved? If so, you will understand how the jailer felt that night.

For teacher's remarks

Total
	20