In the distance, he heard a noise. It sounded like a lot of people. He wondered what was happening. Someone told him that Jesus of Nazareth was coming. As soon as he heard that, Bartimaeus knew this was his big chance to see. He knew that the Lord Jesus had the power to do this.

Colour the words Bartimaeus cried out.

“Jesus, Son of David,
have mercy on me!”

Some people were angry with Bartimaeus for making so much fuss. They told him to keep quiet, but Bartimaeus paid no attention to them. Indeed, he shouted even louder than before. He really wanted the Lord Jesus to help him.

We should be like Bartimaeus! Each one of us needs the Lord Jesus to forgive us our sins. Let's make sure we don't miss our opportunity of trusting Him!
