Story 3 - Daniel - The open windows.

You can read this story in your Bible:

Daniel 6: 16

Ask somebody to help you find this verse.

Daniel was now serving a new king.

Write down the first letter of each object to discover his name.

Daniel was so good at his job that the king planned to put him in charge of everything! This made the other governors and princes jealous.

They decided they would try and find something wrong with his work so that the king would change his mind. They had one problem. Daniel was so honest and careful in everything he did, they could not find anything wrong!

Put YES or NO beside each sentence:-

The king planned to put Daniel in charge of everything.

Daniel was jealous of the princes.

Daniel was honest and careful in his work.

Daniel knew that he was pleasing God by doing his best at work and always being truthful. Whether at school, or home, let us remember that if we love the Lord, like Daniel, we should try to please Him.

Daniel's enemies knew how he often talked to God in prayer. So they decided to set a trap by suggesting to King Darius that a new law be made. For 30 days everyone must come to the king with their requests and not ask any other person or God. Without thinking, the king agreed.

Colour the number of days the new law would last.

Daniel knew this was a trap, but he trusted in God to protect him.

Praying to the Lord was very important in his life and nothing would stop him! So as usual, Daniel went into his room and knelt down in front of the open windows that faced towards Jerusalem.

There, three times a day, he talked to God.

Complete the sentence.

Daniel k _ _ _ _ _ down and p _ _ _ _ _ to God in front of the open w _ _ _ _ _ .

Are you trusting in the Lord? Do you have a time when you pray to Him each day?

As Daniel prayed, he was seen by his enemies who quickly went and told the king. When he heard this, the king was very upset and did his best to find some way to rescue Daniel. But it was no good, for the law of the land could never be changed. Daniel would have to be thrown into the den of lions.

Colour the letters and lion.
