Being sorry for doing wrong.*

Another story Jesus told was about a son who was tired of living at home. He asked his father to give him some money. His father gave it to him and then he left home. He went to a far away land.

At first he had a great time. He spent his money foolishly. When it was all spent, his many new friends didn't want to know him any more. Then there was a famine and food was very hard to find. The only job he could get was looking after pigs.

When he realized how foolish he had been, he decided to go home and say he was sorry. His father saw him coming, ran to meet him and welcomed him home. His father forgave him and held a big party to show how pleased he was to have his son home.

Check the correct answer.
