

Story 3 - Daniel - The open windows.

*A true story
from the Bible:*

*This story is about:
Daniel's honesty and how he prayed to God.*

Daniel had worked so well for the new king Darius, that the king decided to put him in charge of everything. Some of the other governors did not like this and tried to find something wrong with Daniel's work. But they could not find one mistake because Daniel was so honest and careful in everything he did!

Who was the new king?

If we love the Lord, like Daniel, we should try to please Him by doing our best and being honest at all times.

These wicked governors knew that Daniel often talked to God in prayer, asking God to help him. So they decided to set a trap. They got the king to agree to a new law which said that for 30 days, no one was to pray to anyone except the king.

When Daniel heard this he trusted God to protect him. For Daniel, praying to God was most important, and nothing would stop him!

Three times a day Daniel went to his room and knelt down in front of his open windows and prayed to God in Heaven.

The wicked governors saw him praying and went and told the king. He was very upset and did his best to find some way to rescue Daniel. But it was no good. The law had been made, and could not be changed! Daniel would have to be thrown to the lions!
