Study No. 3
Peter - Lessons in Sorrow and Joy

Luke 24: 1-12, & 33-49

Suggested Further Reading
 John 16: 20-22 Acts 13: 38 & 39 1 Peter 2: 21-25

1 Peter 2: 21

Following Peter's denial of his Lord, we may wonder how much of the trial and crucifixion of the Lord Jesus he saw.

Look up 1 Peter 5: 1 and write out the part of the verse which suggests that he did see something.

The death of Christ left a lasting impression upon Peter. What about you? Have you ever come to realize that Christ died for you? Do you understand that He bore the punishment for your sin, so that you can be saved?

The day Jesus died must have been terrible for Peter. No doubt he wished that he could have had an opportunity to tell Him how sorry he was.

In the Bible Reading, we learn how Peter's sorrow was turned into joy!

Underline the correct words in the sentences.

Very LATE / EARLY on the first day of the week the DISCIPLES / WOMEN / PRIESTS came to the tomb. They found the CURTAIN / DOOR / STONE had been removed from its entrance. They went in and did not find the BODY / CLOTHES of the Lord Jesus. FOUR / THREE / TWO men in shining clothes told them He had risen and so they went and told the TEN / ELEVEN / TWELVE disciples what had happened.

Mark 16: 7 informs us that the women were to tell one person in particular that the Lord Jesus had risen. Who was that person?

Peter ran to the tomb to see for himself.

Describe IN YOUR OWN WORDS what he saw and how he felt.

	2

Peter must have been surprised that the angels had particularly mentioned his name. Would the risen Lord Jesus really want to see the one who had failed Him? He didn't have long to wait! Sometime during that wonderful day of the Resurrection, Peter met the Lord Jesus! We don't know what they said to each other.

But verse 34 makes us sure that they did, in fact, meet. Write it out.

What an experience for Peter and his friends! No more sorrow but wonderful joy at seeing their risen Lord.

When we are truly sorry for our sins and believe that the Lord Jesus died and rose again to be our Saviour, our sorrow turns into joy as we receive forgiveness and eternal life. This was the message that the Lord Jesus told Peter and all the disciples they must preach in His Name.

Write out the two things that should be preached. (See verse 47.)
