Lesson No. 4 The Lord's Servants - Prepared to Go!

Acts 10: 1-20, 24-29 & 33-43

Acts 10: 43

Ben and Becky were not very happy. Their Mom and Dad had said that they must go and visit their Uncle who was ill in hospital. Neither of them wanted to go. They didn't like hospitals. However, as they came home, they agreed that they were glad they went. Uncle Bill had been so pleased to see them and had been really cheered up by their visit.

Have you ever felt as they did? Perhaps not wanting to go somewhere or to see someone? God had to prepare another of His servants, Peter, so that he would be willing to go somewhere he would not normally have gone, to tell people about the Lord Jesus.

To find out who lived in Caesarea and what he was, break the code below. (a=1, b=2, c=3, ... z=26)

3 / 15 / 18 / 14 / 5 / 12 / 9 / 21 / 19 3 / 5 / 14 / 20 / 21 / 18 / 9 / 15 / 14

Who had taken note of his words and actions?

	1

As a result, he was given an important message in a vision or dream.

Fill in the missing words to discover what it was:-

SIMON JOPPA PETER SEA

“Now send men to _____ and send for _____ who is staying with _____ a tanner (leather worker), whose house is by the _____.”

Just as they approached the city, Peter went up to the roof of the house. What was he going to do?

	1
--	---

Peter was hungry, and while waiting for the meal to be prepared he had a remarkable experience.

Write on the line in the sheet what he saw. (Acts 10: 11-13)

In the speech bubble write the message which was repeated to him three times.

God was teaching Peter, through this vision, that the Good News about the Lord Jesus was to be shared with non-Jews (or Gentiles as they are called). Until now, Peter had thought it was wrong even to go into the home of a Gentile. God had shown him, through the vision, that ALL NATIONS were to hear the Good News and this made him willing to go to Cornelius' house.

Answer TRUE or FALSE:-

Cornelius was alone in his house when Peter came in.

Peter waited a week before he went.

Cornelius bowed down to worship Peter.

Peter was pleased because Cornelius worshipped him.

Cornelius said they were all ready to hear what God had to say to them.

5

When Peter spoke to the people in the house, he told them about the Lord Jesus. (Read again verses 36-43.)

Write out the Key Verse which taught Cornelius, and teaches us today, what we must do to be saved.

1

That very day, both Cornelius and his whole household believed on the Lord Jesus, and in so doing became Christians. These people were among the first Gentiles to become believers in the Lord Jesus.

Whether it was a Jewish teacher, an Ethiopian treasurer, or a Roman centurion, God's salvation was freely available to each one who would believe. These lessons are just one way God uses to make known this same wonderful message. Will you believe it today? It makes no difference what colour, or race, or religion we are. God is able and ready to save all who will put their trust in the Lord Jesus.
