Story 4 - Tempted in the desert.

Maybe you have been alone for a moment at school and have seen something that doesn't belong to you, like a bag of chips, and thought about taking them.

You were being tempted to do wrong. Saying "No" to things that are wrong is not always easy. Let's find out what the Lord Jesus did.

Fill in the missing words.

Finally, the devil took Jesus to Jerusalem, to the highest point of the Temple and told Him that if He was the Son of God, He could throw Himself down to the ground and not be hurt. He was tempting Jesus to make a display of His power. Again Jesus quoted God's Word to the devil. He wasn't to test God just for the sake of it!

The Lord Jesus quoted verses from the Bible (the Old Testament) to show the devil that He was obeying God, His Father. The Lord Jesus, as we have already learned, never sinned.

On the cross at Calvary, the Lord Jesus was punished for our sin. When we believe this and trust Him, He forgives us. He then helps us to say, "No" when we are tempted to do wrong. Remember, He is stronger than the devil.
