Psalm 18: 30

Have you ever wondered, "Why does it always happen to me?"? Perhaps you're always being picked on at school or find you often have accidents. Paul may have felt like this, for he was always being set upon by his enemies. A mob of Jews seized him in the Temple at Jerusalem. If it had not been for the quick action of Roman soldiers, he would have been torn to pieces! The Romans took him into their castle, or barracks, for his own safety. But the Jews were determined that they were going to kill him. Now look at the Bible Reading to find out what happened.

The following night the Lord stood by him and encouraged him.

Write down what He said.

Though he didn't understand all that was happening, Paul knew God was looking after him and that the promises of His Word were true. The secret of Paul's confidence was that he trusted the Lord. Have you trusted the Lord Jesus for salvation? Do you know His help and presence day by day? Trusting the Lord Jesus as Saviour and Friend means that you will be able to face life's difficulties and problems, and be certain that He is in control when things seem to be going wrong.

Sometimes during holidays you may visit several different relatives. They all seem to want to know how you are getting on at school. After you've told the third or fourth one you may think to yourself, "How many more times?". Paul may have felt like this as he had to stand trial before various officials who had been appointed to try him. Yet he didn't mind because he used every opportunity to tell them about the Lord Jesus.

After three months, Paul continued his journey to Rome, where he was kept a prisoner in his own home but was still allowed to have visitors. You will see by reading the very last verse of the book of Acts what he did. Yes, right up to the end of his life he was still telling people about his Saviour, the Lord Jesus. Once again, Paul had trusted the Lord through difficult situations. He knew God would never let him down. If you, like Paul, trust the Lord Jesus, He will forgive your sins and help you in every situation in your life. He will also never let you down!
