Genesis 37: 1-11

This true story is about:
Joseph's strange dreams

Joseph belonged to a big family. He had TEN big brothers, one sister, and ONE little brother.

Circle the RIGHT answers.

How many big brothers did Joseph have?

10 12 1

How many little brothers did Joseph have?

10 12 1

Joseph's big brothers did not like him. They were very jealous of him because their father made him a lovely coat. It had many different colours in it. Perhaps it was like this. Colour it with bright colours.

Joseph's big brothers also hated Joseph because of the strange dreams which he had. One dream was about their sheaves of corn bowing down to his sheaf. Another dream was about the sun, the moon, and eleven stars all bowing to Joseph.

The dreams meant that one day Joseph would rule over his brothers. God had a great plan for Joseph's life!

God loves each of us, and He wants to have His way in our lives.

Genesis 37: 12-36

This true story is about:
Joseph being sold by
his brothers

Please put your name here

One day Joseph's father, who was called Jacob, sent him to see how his brothers were doing. They were far away from home, caring for their flocks of sheep.

Write their father's name
here: J _ _ _ _ _

When Joseph reached the place where his brothers were, they grabbed hold of him. They pulled off his coat and threw him into a deep pit in the ground. A little while later they sold him to some men who were going to Egypt. The men paid 20 silver coins for him, and took him away as a slave.

His brothers killed an animal and dipped Joseph's coat in its blood. They took the coat home to their father, and told him a lie. They said they had found it! Their father thought that Joseph must have been torn to pieces by a wild animal.

How cruel Joseph's brothers were to both Joseph and their father! Perhaps they thought they would never be found out! Years later, they were!

Colour these words from the Bible.

“Be sure your sin
will find you out.”

This true story is about:
Joseph being put in prison

Please put your name here

When Joseph was brought to Egypt, he was sold to a man who needed a slave to work in his house. The man's name was Potiphar. He was kind to Joseph, and trusted him to take care of everything when he was away from home.

Joseph was a good, honest slave. But one day Potiphar's wife accused him of doing wrong. She told Potiphar many lies about Joseph.

Potiphar was very angry and so threw Joseph into a horrible prison.

Poor Joseph! He had lost his job, his home, and his friends. Had God forgotten about him? No, indeed, for the Bible tells us that even in the prison:-

“The Lord was with Joseph.”

Genesis 39: 2

No matter what happens, we should always trust God. He will always be with us, if we have believed in the Lord Jesus as our Saviour.

Genesis 41: 14-49

*This true story is about:
Joseph becoming ruler of Egypt*

Please put your name here

For years, Joseph was in jail! Then one day he was taken to meet the king of Egypt. The king had some strange dreams and he wanted to know what they meant. Someone had told the king that Joseph could explain dreams.

Joseph told the king that his dreams meant there were going to be seven years of very good crops; these would be followed by seven years of very poor crops. Famine would then spread all over Egypt. Joseph said the king should get someone to store up all the extra food during the good years. This would then be used to feed the people during the bad years.

The king was very pleased with the way Joseph explained the dreams. He gave him the job of storing all the food. He also gave him a ring, a gold chain for his neck, and a big chariot to ride in. He made him ruler of Egypt.

Write below each picture the name of the gifts the king gave Joseph, and colour them.
